OVER THE STATE.

For tampering with her affections, Mrs. Margaret Adams of Louisville, a widow 39 years of age, has filed a $25,000 breach of promise suit against R. Monin. The defendant is a wealthy man and a member of the well-known stock firm of Monin, Hardaway & Co. The plaintiff in the case is unusually good looking.

Mrs. Barbara Fisher, of Petersburg, a suburb adjoining Covington, and her two sons were caught the other night on the Lick Run trestle. Mrs. Fisher could not hang to the timbers, and fell forty feet into the water and was killed. The boys, aged 10 and 12 years, crouched at the end of the ties as the train passed and were saved.

"Bad Tom" Smith, who is condemned to die on the scaffold at Jackson this month for the murder of Dr. Rader, is dying, and Dr. Redwine believes that he will not live to meet death by the noose. For several days the condemned man has been sinking into rapid decline, and when the news of the sentence to life terms of Adkins and Fields reached him he fainted and was revived with difficulty.

A pest-house riot broke out at Winchester last week. A colored prisoner in the county jail had smallpox. Lumber was secured and carpenters put to work on a pest-house, five miles out. The pest-house was burned and the farmers, armed with rifles, are guarding the roads in anticipation that the smallpox prisoner may be taken through their neighborhood to some obscure locality. Meantime the sheriff, whose residence is in the jail, has his smallpox prisoner on his hands and cannot get out of town.

On Saturday afternoon, at Richmond, a beardless youth, accompanied by a blushing young Miss, apparently about 18 years old, presented themselves at the clerk's office. The couple proved to be an eloping party from Tallula, Illinois. They gave their names as Gabriel Marshal and Maud Turner, and requested the clerk to issue a marriage license. So youthful looking were the pair, however, that Clerk White declined to give them the necessary papers. Almost heart-broken with their disappointment they were turning away when County Judge Burdum appeared on the scene and adjusted matters by appointing a guardian for the young lady, who, of course, consented, and the two were married in the county clerk's office. Both bride and groom were born in this county and ran away from their Illinois home to come here and wed. They will visit relatives before returning home.

Happily United.

The nuptials of Alphonso Frey and Miss Nancy E. Trimble were very happily solemnized at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John Bereaw, southwest of the city, Wednesday evening. The affair was in every respect a notable success, the troth being plighted in the presence of a large assemblage of friends and relatives who tendered their sincere congratulations. Miss Pearl Trimble of Newman was the bridesmaid and Fred Davis acted as groomsman. Rev. A. E. Dubber was the officiating minister, and acquitted himself as such in his usual pleasing and acceptable manner. An elegant supper succeeded the ceremony, and a splendid social time was enjoyed by all in attendance. The young people were the recipients of a number of handsome and substantial remembrances from their many friends. They will make their home in this city, Mr. Frey being in the employ of Sunkel & Son, the west side clothiers. Both young people are deserving of every happiness, and will have the earnest well wishes of a wide circle of relatives and friends.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.—Wednesday night occurred the wedding of Alphonso Frey and Miss Nancy E. Trimble. The event took place at the commodious residence of John Bereaw, a brother-in-law of the bride, which is about three miles south of the city. Promptly at 8 o'clock the assembled friends and relatives, numbering about 150, were hushed by the gentle strains of the wedding march that told of the near approach of the happy party. First came Elder Dubber, followed by Fred Davis, the chosen man, and then the groom elect; then entered Miss Pearl Trimble, maid of honor, accompanying Miss Nancy. The young ladies were beautifully arrayed, the bride wearing white silk, and carried in her hand a bouquet of roses, while Miss Pearl was attired in a cream colored mull. Rare indeed were their equals to behold. After a most impressive ceremony an elegant supper was served.

The gifts were of a varied and costly character, indicative of a wide and worthy friendship. Mr. Frey is the chief assistant in the management of the John Sunkel & Son clothing store, while the accomplished bride is known by a host of friends in Paris. They will make their permanent home in this city. May prosperity attend their efforts.—Paris (Ill.) Beacon.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

IT'S INJURIOUS TO STOP SUD-DENLY and don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about "BACO CURO." It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with BACO-CURO. IT WILL NOTIFY YOU WHEN TO STOP and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An iron-clad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded. Price $1.00 per box or 3 boxes (30 days treatment and guaranteed cure), $2.50. For sale by all druggists or will be sent by mail upon receipt of price. SEND SIX TWO CENT STAMPS FOR SAMPLE BOX. Booklets and proofs free.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being, at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco Curo." Three weeks ago today I commenced using your preparation, and today I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it. Yours very truly, C. W. HORNICK.
